

Deborah I. Gottschalk, Esq.
Chief Policy Advisor, DHSS

Since July 2009, Debbie has held the position of Chief Policy Advisor to the Secretary of Delaware's Department of Health & Social Services. Prior to coming to DHSS, she worked for 15 years as an attorney at the Community Legal Aid Society. During her time at CLASI, she handled a variety of cases, including representing tenants in housing discrimination cases. Debbie also worked to pass the law in Delaware that added sexual orientation to the classes protected from discrimination in housing, employment, public accommodations, and public works contracting.
